50th Annual NAIA NATIONAL MEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

The NAIA National Men's Championship Basketball Tournament will celebrate its golden anniversary this season when the event is staged March 11-17, 1987, at Kansas City, Missouri's 16,000-seat Crosby Kemper Arena. Kansas City has been home for the tournament since its inception.

The event had its beginning as a 16-team, small college invitational at Municipal Auditorium in 1937 and expanded to the current 32-team format the following year. It was incorporated under the auspices of the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball (NAIB) in 1940 which later became the NAIA in 1952 when the Association became a multi-sport organization. The tournament was moved from 10,000-seat Municipal Auditorium to Kemper Arena in 1975.

Opening rounds through the quarterfinals of the 1987 tournament are slated for Wednesday through Saturday (March 11-14), with the semifinals and finals to be held Monday and Tuesday (March 16-17). The Entertainment and Sports Programming Network (ESPN) will televise the semifinal and championship games live to its national cable affiliates.

The NAIA tournament is the largest—over 175 teams will begin first round district play—and it is the oldest—the NIT began in 1938 and the NCAA in 1939—collegiate basketball championship event.

7th Annual NAIA NATIONAL WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

The 7th annual NAIA National Women's Championship Basketball Tournament is scheduled for March 13-17, 1987, in Kansas City, Missouri. The 16-team event features the champions of 15 regional tournaments and an at-large team. First round and quarterfinals of the national tournament will be held on Friday and Saturday (March 13-14) at Municipal Auditorium. The semifinals and finals are scheduled for Monday and Tuesday (March 16-17) at Kemper Arena.

The NAIA women's tournament began in 1981 in Kansas City, featuring an eight-team format. The event was expanded to 16 teams in 1983 and was held in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, in 1983 and 1984. The tournament returned to Kansas City last year.

DISTRICT 1

Washington—Northern Idaho—British Columbia—Alaska

Ron VanderSchaaf
Central Washington

Look up tradition in a recent dictionary and it might just use Central Washington (27-6) in a sentence to explain the meaning of the word. The Wildcats under NAIA Hall of Fame coach Dean Nicholson have made a tradition out of qualifying for the national tournament and will be a solid favorite again with four starters back including all-district performers Ron vanderSchaaf (6-8, Sr) and Joe Harris (6-2, Sr). The Wildcats are certain to be one of the nation's top teams in most pre-season polls.

Four starters also return at Whitman WA (21-8) where veteran coach Jim Mastin will count on his son, all-district forward Dave Mastin (6-5, Sr), to pace the Missionaries. Whitman reached the district finals a year ago, but were unable to overcome Central Washington in a best-of-three series. Another father-son team will be operating at Lewis-Clark State ID (21-10) where all-district guard Greg Hannan (6-5, Sr) is back to lead the way for Warrior coach

Dave Mastin
Whitman WA

Richard Hannan, in quest of another postseason berth. Pacific Lutheran WA (17-10) will shoot for its fourth consecutive Northwest Conference championship, but must replace scoring punch lost in the graduation of all-district guard Dan Gibbs. Junior backcourter Doug Galloway (5-11, Jr) will headline nine returning lettermen for the Lutes.

Elsewhere, Simon Fraser BC (15-17) has the firepower for a postseason playoff spot, the Clansmen returning the district's top two scorers in guard Mark Staley (6-3, Jr) and forward Bob Hietjes (6-6, Sr). St. Martin's WA (12-19) should be improved with swingman Marshall Koukal (6-3, Sr) returning for the Saints. Shane Nickel (6-7, Sr) has developed into a quality center at Western Washington (11-15), but the Vikings must find some help at the forward positions. Seattle University WA (10-20) could turn things completely around, the Chieftans returning their top three scorers led by guard Kevin Bailey (6-4, Sr).

DISTRICT 2

Oregon—Southern Idaho

Kenny Stone
George Fox OR

The College of Idaho (23-7) will be after its fourth consecutive district championship in 1987, and the Coyotes return a pair of quality forwards in Kevin Hulsey (6-7, Sr) and Lowell Cisowski (6-3, Sr). Coach Marty Holly has added some promising junior college talent in an effort to maintain an offensive thrust which generated nearly 90 points a game last year.

Foremost among a host of prospective challengers for the district title is George Fox OR (21-10) with nine returning lettermen and four starters back highlighted by standout forward Kenny Stone (6-6, Sr), a third team All-America pick last season. Oregon Tech (32-9) will be a top contender once again with guard Lloyd Adams (6-5, Sr) and forward Calvin Earl (6-6, Sr) leading the way for the Owls. All-district center Bill Edwardson (6-8, Jr) returns for Warner Pacific OR (19-13), anchoring a unit for the Knights which will feature both size and speed. Northwest Nazarene ID (19-10) is expected to remain in the title chase despite the loss of much of the Crusaders' scoring punch.

Dan Hummel

A strong infusion of junior college talent creates a bright outlook for Western Oregon (10-19), where second year coach Mark Adams also welcomes the return of starting forward Dan Hummel (6-6, Jr). Western Baptist OR (29-10) also heralds the arrival of juco transfers in search of the replacement of 45 points of production lost through the graduation of the Warriors top three players. All-conference center Dave Craven (6-5, Jr) will provide the nucleus for Linfield OR (15-12), as the Wildcats try for a return to the playoffs.

Around the rest of the district, Southern Oregon (12-21) is still young, but the Raiders have a rapidly-improving program featuring talented center Randy Rose (6-6, So) and forward Wilbert Fleming (6-5, So). Forward Brian Van Wagner (6-4, Sr) returns at Pacific OR (7-19), guard Jonn Lunstord (6-3, Jr) is the mainstay for Lewis and Clark OR (8-18) and forward Millard Bell (6-4, Jr) heads the list of three double-figure scorers back at Columbia Christian OR (4-23).

DISTRICT 3

California

Gary Hook
Biola CA

A very competitive race is expected in California this season with any of a number of teams capable of earning a trip to Kansas City. The strength exists in the newly-formed Golden State Athletic Conference where defending district champion Westmont (23-8) is the early favorite. The Warriors' top returning starter is center Shawn Stuermer (6-9, Sr) who will anchor an impressive list of recruits for coach Chet Kammerer, highlighted by Nevada-Las Vegas transfer Rickey Collier (6-4, Jr).

Among the other GSAC teams expected to compete for the district title are Point Loma Nazarene CA (23-7), the Crusaders remaining competitive despite the graduation of All-America forward Deon Richard, and Southern California College (19-10), which returns seven lettermen led by guard Jon Haar (6-4, Sr). Fresno Pacific (13-15) should be one of the most improved team, the Sunbirds welcoming back four starters, as should Azusa Pacific

Shawn Stuermer
Westmont CA

(10-22), where all-district center Bill DesRochers (6-8, Jr) highlights the returnees for veteran coach Cliff Hamlow, the winningest active NAIA coach.

Biola (25-7) leads the list of top independents despite the loss of all but one starter, forward Gary Hook (6-7, Sr). The Eagles will rely on their usual quality defense and should progress into contention by playoff time. Others to watch around the district include California Baptist (20-13), led by guard Clarence Worship (6-3, Sr), West Coast Christian (16-13), paced by high-scoring Glen Parish (6-1, Jr) and The Master's (6-23), where forward Pete Coeler (6-4, Sr) returns for the Mustangs. New member institution Christ College Irvine (25-8) could make an immediate impact on the district scene, particularly with 26-point scorer Derwin Appleberry (6-6, Sr) on hand for the Eagles.

Texas

Benny Russell
Texas Lutheran

It will be difficult for Southwestern (20-12) to capture a third straight district title, but the Pirates should be among the top contenders once again. Coach Paul Peak must experience basketball in the post Bobby Deaton era following the graduation of the All-America forward. Holdover regulars Jim Rathburn (6-7, Sr) and Greg Potter (5-9, Sr) will provide the nucleus for the Bucs as they add some fresh recruits to the program.

Look for St. Mary's (16-12) to be the primary challenger to dethrone Southwestern from the district helm. The Rattlers hope a healthy Pete Hansen (6-6, Sr) at post and second year backcourt sensation Anthony Houston (5-10, So) will provide the foundation for an outstanding year, despite a rugged schedule which includes five NCAA Division I opponents.

Also expected to be in the thick of the district title chase is St. Edward's (22-12), the Hilltoppers featuring a pair of all-district performers in center

Pete Hansen
St. Mary's TX

DeNeil Davis (6-6, Sr) and guard Ronnie Smith (6-0, Sr). Texas Lutheran (15-17), returns 10 lettermen including all-district backcourt ace Benny Russell (5-9, Jr) and the Bulldogs' playoff aspirations are legitimate.

Others to watch around the district include 1986 runner-up Concordia Lutheran (16-17), which should remain competitive despite the graduation of standout forward Michael Childs and East Texas Baptist, where guard Kevin Hicks (6-3, Jr) should help turn things around for the Tigers.

DISTRICT 5

New England

Jay Bedwell
Maine-Presque Isle

Postseason experience has become a very positive factor for Franklin Pierce NH (24-7). The Ravens have captured six district titles since 1980 and would appear to be the team-to-beat once again with forward David Burgis (6-5, Sr) and guard Michael Melvin (6-3, Sr) returning for coach Bruce Kirsh. The list of challengers with a chance of overthrowing Franklin Pierce is lengthy.

Last year's district runner-up St. Joseph's ME (26-4) is still suffering over its two-point loss in last year's title game, but the Monks are revamping their high scoring attack in hopes of repeating as Western Maine Athletic Conference champions. Expected to challenge in the WMAC is a talented Thomas ME (13-14) squad, the Terners led by all-district forward Joe DeRoche (6-5, Jr). Husson ME (18-9), paced by sharp shooting guard Jay Moore (5-10, Sr) and forward John Cuskelly (6-4, Sr) should return to postseason play, while Maine-Farmington (11-13) could cut into the league title chase.

David Burgis
Franklin Pierce NH

Over in the Northeast College Conference, defending champion Maine-Machias (22-6) returns three starters, the Clippers led by guard Andy Earley (5-10, Sr). Maine-Presque Isle (12-12) should be the primary challenger to Mach as, the Owls featuring one of the district's top players in forward Jay Bedwell (6-4, Jr). Maine-Fort Kent (13-8) should also contend for the NCC loop title with four starters back for the Bengals, including guard Juan Hernandez (5-8, Sr).

Look for 1985 district champion Castleton State VT (19-9) to push Franklin Pierce for league honors in the Mayflower Conference. Jerry Martin takes over as head coach of the Spartans who feature an outstanding player in forward George Price (6-3, So). All five starters are back at St. Joseph VT (17-14) highlighted by forward Phil Callahan (6-4, Jr) and the Saints should make a bid for the conference championship. Green Mountain VT (12-14) may be a couple of players short in a bid for the Mayflower crown, but the Eagles will feature a quality returning player in forward Dave Cherry (6-4, Jr).

Independents to keep an eye on include Eastern Nazarene MA (12-13), the Crusaders boasting one of the nation's top scorers in forward Mark Milane (6-4, Sr), and Western New England MA (6-18), the Golden Bears featuring a solid inside player in Pat McGuirl (6-4, Sr). Gordon MA (7-18) will make some changes in hopes of getting the Fighting Scots' program back on the winning track under new head coach John Block, a former professional in the National Basketball Association.

South Carolina

Jeff Wilkerson
Limestone SC

Veteran national tournament observers will tell you that teams which play good defense will do well in post-season play and Charleston SC (26-9) is traditionally one of the best on defense in the country. The Cougars have won this tough district race three out of the last four years and return 11 lettermen this season led by guard Steve Johnson (6-2, Jr).

Among a host of other bonafide contenders for the championship is Limestone (23-9), last year's district runner-up. The Saints return four starters including standout swingman Jeff Wilkerson (6-2, Sr). Francis Marion (22-8) is being highly-rated based on all five starters coming back for the Patriots including all-district forward Patrick Callaway (6-5, Sr). Guard Ronnie Williams (6-1, Sr) headlines an impressive squad at USC-Spartanburg (22-6), while Erskine (17-15) and Presbyterian (21-10) should both remain prime title threats if replacements can be found for key starters lost to graduation.

Russell Manley
Coker SC

Elsewhere, look for Claffin (20-10) to establish itself as a legitimate contender on the strength of a potent offensive attack led by forward Merce Bryant (6-4, Sr). Lander (21-11) was decimated in the starting ranks, and holdover lettermen like guard Terry Bryan (5-9, Sr) must provide the needed leadership. Other players to watch include forward Aaron Johnson (6-5, So), the district rebound leader at Central Wesleyan (12-15), guard Wayne Rice (6-2, Sr) at Wofford (15-12), forward Philip Thomas (6-4, Jr) at Voorhees (15-16) and center Russell Manley (6-7, Jr) at Coker (5-20).

DISTRICT 7

Colorado—Utah—Arizona—New Mexico

Guy Taylor
Southern Colorado

Southern Colorado (20-12) was somewhat a surprise district champion a year ago, winning two games on the road to advance to Kansas City for the third straight time. The Indians are being evaluated highly this season as the favorite in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference. Three starters return led by the solid backcourt duo of Guy Taylor (6-0, So) and Jerome Jones (5-10, Sr).

Defending RMAC champion Western New Mexico (19-9) who probably would have traded its league crown for the district title a year ago, will attempt to repeat despite the loss of two all-district players to graduation. Guard Manuel Carolina (5-10, Sr) paces the returning lettermen for the Mustangs. Other RMAC teams expected to compete for a district playoff spot include Fort Lewis CO (23-9) with standout guard Joel Thibetom (6-0, Jr) and Mesa CO (17-12) where forward Guy Swope (6-5, Jr) leads the returnees for the Mavericks. Mike Rogers (6-4, Sr) is an outstanding guard at Western State

CO (4-22), but the Mountaineers need to develop a better attack overall.

In the independent ranks, Denver CO (17-12) is anticipating an outstanding campaign with eight lettermen and four starters back for coach Dick Peth. Tops among the returnees for the Pioneers are forward Stan Adams (6-6, Sr) and center Adam Murphy (6-7, Sr). Grand Canyon AZ (19-8) looks solid on the frontline with players like forward Bob Gallagher (6-6, Jr), but the Antelopes need some help in the backcourt. Regis CO (17-11) needs its help up front, the Rangers being pretty well set at the guard position with Sam Batey (6-2, Sr) and Adam Simental (6-0, Sr).

DISTRICT 8

Texas

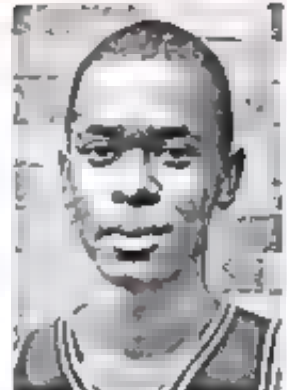

Terry Zeilow
LeTourneau TX

Independent Wayland Baptist (28-6) has established itself as a powerhouse under coach Mark Adams. The Pioneers return seven lettermen in quest of a third straight district championship including all-district guard Michael Parks (6-3, Sr) and forward Adam Richards (6-6, Sr).

Midwestern State (22-9), runner-up to Wayland last year, returns the district's top scorer in guard Robert Harris (6-1, Sr) as the Indians attempt to keep pace. All five starters are back at Texas Wesleyan including all-district guard Victor Spencer (6-0, Sr) and the Rams have visions of a national tournament on their minds. Lubbock Christian (20-11) hopes incoming talent can help out immediately after the Chaparrals lost four starters to graduation.

In the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, defending champion McMurry (15-16) returns three starters for veteran coach Hershell Kimbrell, the Indians listing center Jose Yebra (6-8, Sr) and guard James Swoopes (6-2,

Robert Harris

So) as its top veterans. Sul Ross State (12-20) has a chance to completely turn things around and challenge for the TIAA crown with high-scoring guard Joe Burney (6-2, Jr) and forward Mike Smith (6-5, So) back for the Lobos. Tarleton State (7-16) with forward Donald Buckler (6-6, Jr) and Austin College (11-15) with guard Mike Allison (6-1, Sr) both will rely on much help from younger players.

Two outstanding teams appear destined for the district playoffs again in the Interregional Athletic Conference, as defending champion Wiley (16-12) and Paul Quinn (30-13) both have bright outlooks. Three starters return at Wiley, the Wildcats paced by standout forward Rodenck Edwards (6-7, Sr). Paul Quinn welcomes back 10 lettermen, the Tigers featuring a potent offensive attack revolving around swingman Edward Lamar (6-3, Sr).

Other players to watch in the district include all-district center Greg Henderson (6-6, So) at Jarvis Christian (16-19), guard John Wilhite (6-4, Jr) at Dallas Baptist (17-18) and guard Terry Zeilow (5-10, Sr) at LeTourneau (13-13).

DISTRICT 9

Chen in the Sooner Athletic Conference. Oklahoma City (25-1) is drawing rave reviews as one of the nation's top teams. All five starters return from last year's 23-20 run-up. Four underclassmen spent the last season at Oklahoma City. All district champions remain in Division 10-3. Six and point guard Luther Allen (10-3, 5e) headlines for the Chick-Oklahoma Christian (22-7) and SNC member William Penn (19-10). Forward Todd Clark (5-4, Sr) will be a prime candidate as a Southern Nazarene (20-16), with the four starters back including forward Jack Masters (6-6, Sr) look for a repeat. Paul Henson is a plus-line impact on the program at Science and Arts (19-10) with some added muscle to succeed last district champion North Haven (15-11).

DISTRICT 10

Emporia State (21-5), defending champion of the rugged Central States meet, defeats Centerville 69-44 as a league started Jan. 6. Chalmers (18-4, 31) but coach Ben Slaymaker must replace the rest of his starting lineup for the Hornets. Look for 1984 and 1985 national championship on Fort Hays (22-4), to remain a very solid threat with Howard Center Williams (18-6). Should be an impressive record on which included Kansas State transfer Tyrone Jackson. Wakehurst (24-0) had had the 20-year seasons under Bob Chalmers, and the "rabbits" might be headed for a seventh with returning players on all-district center Ben Jones (24-4, 31).

playoff berth again.

Even in rebuilding years Kearney State (17-15) is regarded as the team to beat, so with 12 lettermen and four starters back this season, the Antelopes look like shoe-ins for their 10th consecutive district title. Coach Jerry Hueser begins his final season at the Loper helm with versatile personnel including all-district guard Bart Koloed (6-5, Sr) and center Darren Soucie (6-6, Sr). Kearney will be one of the favorites in the tough Central States Conference.

Second-year coach Steve Aggers appears to have an improved squad at Wayne State (13-20) after falling three points short of Kearney State in last year's district championship final. Standout guard Russ Rosenquist (6-2, Jr) highlights the returnees for the Wildcats. Doane (17-15) has perhaps the district's top player in forward Brian Hoffman (6-6, Sr), and the Tigers look for a return to postseason play. Dana (15-15) will rely on another outstanding season from guard Todd Hinkle (6-0, Sr) if the Vikings are to challenge for a Scouting the rest of the troops in the district, look for Hastings (10-16) to bounce back to its winning ways with four quality starters back including center Mark Lamb (6-8, Jr). Concordia (12-18) returns two all-district performers in forward Brian Cunningham (6-7 Sr) and guard Rodney Freeman (5-9, Sr), giving the Bulldogs eager anticipation of a banner season. Forward Scott Blachly (6-4, Jr) will be a key individual at Chadron State and guard Todd Hollingsworth (6-0, Sr) is instrumental to a good season at Peru State (19-12).

Dave Becker

The theme at Huron SD (28-3) could be 'A Few Good Men' as the Tribe enlists its ex-mannes to conquer another district title. Leading the mission will be All-America candidate Dennis Smith (6-3, Sr) and his lieutenants, forwards Herman Braxton (6-4, So) and Jeff Norman (6-5, Sr). Huron will be talented as well as deep, and are clear-cut favorites to repeat as South Dakota Intercollegiate Conference champions.

Elsewhere in the SDIC, South Dakota Tech (21-6) has four starters back including all-league guard Dave Becker (5-10, Sr), but the Hardrockers will miss center Jim Benjamin, the district's most valuable player a year ago. Four starters are also back at Black Hills SD (13-15) led by center Willie Abbott (6-6, Sr), and all-district forward Chris Frick (6-3, Sr) returns to bolster the effort at Sioux Falls SD (9-18).

Over in the Frontier Conference, 1986 district runner-up Rocky Mountain

MT (20-9) has a void in the middle after the graduation of seven-foot center Bill Braeding, but the Battling Bears return eight lettermen including standout forward Dennis Hummer (6-8, Sr). All-district guard Cary Finberg (6-4, Jr) returns at Western Montana (17-13), giving the Bulldogs optimism for a league title. Forward Brad Huse (6-4, Jr) leads the effort at Montana Tech (14-14), while center Tony Eglund (6-8, Sr) will be the mainstay of the attack at Carroll MT (8-20).

Up in the North Dakota Collegiate Athletic Conference, defending champion Minot State (17-10) returns four starters including all-district guard Rick Hedberg (6-2, Jr). Valley City (15-10) has a bright prospective, the Vikings led by forward Jim Bugner (6-5, Sr), while Jamestown (19-7) gets a facelift including a new coach as Mike Carroll takes over the Jimmie helm.

Others to watch include Mary ND (23-11) where all-district forward Jerome Nichols (6-3, Sr) headlines a quality cast for the Marauders. Four starters are back at Northern State SD (10-17) where center James Griffin (6-8, Sr) leads an effort to turn things around for the Wolves.

Bemidji State (17-15) is also certain to be a very improved club. The Beavers roll in their entire starting lineup mixed up by all-around guard David Lee (6-6, Jr.), a 20 point scorer last year. Concordia-St. Paul (5-21) hopes for an improved effort and win court or guard Kneigh Decker (6-2, Sr.) to pace the Corns' attack.

Gordy Sagerstad (6-6, Sr.), an all-star pick for season.

Around the rest of the district, independent Parkside (21-25) remains one of the top programs, the Rangers being paced by forward Mark Jurek (6-6, Sr.). Milwaukee (10-17) will be stronger and the Panthers have a solid center in Eric Schen (6-8, Sr.). Look for Concordia (7-10) to make a serious bid for the playoffs with all five starters back on the Falcons including guard Eric Coleman (5-11, Sr.) and forward Bruce Hennig (6-6, Sr.).

All-around guard Christine Greaves (6-3, Sr.) leads a list of eight returning lettermen in defending champs on Eau Claire (24-7) as the Blugolds continue their winning tradition. Eau Claire led the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 55 points a contest last season, and coach Rex Anderson will again stress that aspect of the game.

Challengers in the Wisconsin State University Conference will include defending champion Stevens Point (22-7), the Panthers leading the district's top players in forward Tim Hoag (6-7, Sr.) about (7-3-1) or in seven lettermen back including guard Brian Hingston (6-4, Sr.) and Pletchville (16-11), with Hoag, up last returning led by forward Steve Kinnaman (6-5, Jr.), should both have good opportunities to return to postseason play. Improvement is expected from River Falls (11-16) where all-district center Paul Derry (6-3, Sr.) Miluna, and Oshkosh (6-3), where the Titans brought Norway as forward

Iowa

Greg Van Soelen
Dordt IA

Despite the graduation of three-time All-America forward Mario Galvez, the leading scorer in Iowa collegiate basketball history, Briar Cliff (25-5) is still given a good chance of repeating as district champion. The Chargers will pass the scoring torch from one Panamanian to another as forward Fernando Pinillo (6-6, Jr) is expected to take over where Galvez left off.

The spotlight which has been directed primarily at Galvez for the last three years will now be focused on another sensational player at Dordt (20-6), where All-America center Greg Van Soelen (6-7, Jr) returns. Van Soelen led the nation in field goal percentage (.677) last year and averaged 31 points a game for the Defenders. With some strong support, Dordt could make a bid for its first-ever national tournament appearance.

Around the rest of the state, Mount Mercy (18-14) returns seven lettermen led by guard Ron Harp (5-11, Jr), while Northwestern (18-12) expects eight lettermen back including all-district guard Bill Francis (6-1, Sr), a 24-point scorer for the Red Raiders a year ago. Marycrest (18-12) looks to rebuild after losing two all-district players to graduation.

Other players to keep an eye on in the district include forward Scott Woods (6-3, Sr) at Graceland (14-15), guard Scott Hartman (6-2, Sr) at Westmar (4-26) and guard Keith Sanders (6-3, So) for new member Clarke (8-21).

Some voids need to be filled by newcomers, but Drury (25-10) will be in the thick of the district title chase again. The Panthers, after their third straight trip to the national tournament, are led by all-district guard Ted Young (6-0, Sr) and forward Tony King (6-5, Jr).

Primary challengers to dethrone Drury would appear to be Missouri Southern (20-11) or Missouri Western (25-9). Southern returns four starters from last year's district runner-up team, the Lions featuring all-district center Marvin Townsend (6-7, Sr) and guard Reggie Grantham (6-0, Sr). Western lost nearly 28 points a game with the graduation of All-America guard Arthur Cooks, but the Griffons will have a strong inside game led by center Daniel Gambrell (6-7, Jr).

In the Heart of America Conference, look for another outstanding year at William Jewell MO (25-4), the Cardinals led by all-district forward Kevin Cheadle (6-7, Jr). Four starters are back at Missouri Valley (21-11) where HOA scoring leader Vince Smith (6-3, Jr) highlights the Viking veterans. Culver-Stockton (17-10) will shoot for the HOA title behind center Buddy Swartzenberg (6-5, Sr) and forward Mike Eaves (6-3, Sr).

In the Ozark Collegiate Conference race, defending champion School of the Ozarks (21-12) is strong again, the Bobcats with eight lettermen back including forward Mike Matter (6-5, Sr). Westminster (23-7) features two all-league guards in Cory Hohnbaum (5-11, Sr) and Ken Theroff (5-11, Jr). Baptist Bible (13-21) will be improved and return 21-point scorer Kevin Willis (6-5, Sr) at forward.

Independent Rockhurst (10-15), with four starters back led by all-district center Doug Wernhoff (6-6, So) and leading scorer Doug Boucher (6-6, Jr), should be a prime district title challenger. Avila (20-7) was hit hard in the starting ranks by graduation, but the Avalanche could stay competitive if the new recruits help immediately. Leading scorer Darrin Hall (6-4, Jr) returns at Hannibal LaGrange (13-18), while forward Jim Cox (6-6, Jr) and five other lettermen are back with a chance to improve fortunes at Southwest Baptist (9-19).

Arkansas

In a classic case of a team peaking at playoff time, Arkansas-Monticello (26-10) had a sensational postseason, advancing all the way to the national championship final before having its bubble burst. Despite significant losses in the backcourt, the Boll Weevils should be the team-to-beat in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference with a solid frontline which includes all-district center Ikie Corbin (6-7, Jr) and power forward George Washington (6-8, Sr).

After losing a heart-breaking overtime decision to Monticello in the district championship game, defending AIC champion Central Arkansas (23-6) will have a measure of revenge on its mind as 11 lettermen return for the Bears. All-America forward Scottie Pippen (6-7, Sr) and guard Ronnie Martin (6-2, Jr) lead the returnees. Four starters are back at Ouachita Baptist (18-11) including all-district picks Freeman Green (6-6, Sr) and Chris Bryant (6-6, Sr), making the Tigers a top league contender. College of the Ozarks (21-14), with all-district forward Marc Pace (6-8, Sr), and Harding (16-14), behind standout guard Shannon Hughes (6-4, Sr), are other teams who can't be counted out of the AIC race.

Other players and teams to watch around the district include guard Nick Lasker (5-11, Jr) at Hendrix (15-13), forward Tommy Johnson (6-8, Jr) at Arkansas Tech (9-17), guard Dwayne Smith (6-2, Sr) at Southern Arkansas (9-17) and all-district guard Greg Matthews (6-0, Jr) at Henderson State (11-16).

Waynesburg PA (27-2) has a very good chance of capturing its fourth consecutive district championship. The Yellow Jackets return four starters from a year ago including second year sensation Darrin Walls (6-3, So) and forward Theron Hogue (6-4, Sr). Coach Rudy Marisa's teams like to put points on the board and it appears Waynesburg could be among the better offensive units in the nation in 1986-87.

Look for last year's runner-up, Westminster PA (19-9) to be in the title chase again behind all-district forward Rich Kunselman (6-6, Sr) and five other lettermen for the Titans. Forwards Gary Parker (6-3, Sr) and Kelly Randolph (6-5, Sr) headline a good cast at Point Park PA (18-15), while forward Mark Owens (6-5, Sr) highlights a capable club at St. Vincent PA (19-10).

Elsewhere, the darkhorse team could be Keuka NY (18-6) where 10 lettermen and all five starters return. The Warriors were young and somewhat surprising last year, but should be serious district playoff contenders this season with talent like center Ray Dickson (6-8, So) and forward Shawn Reed (6-4, So). Other players to watch include all-district forward Ed Robinson (6-5, So) at Pitt-Bradford (7-22), guard Josh Merrill (5-11, Sr) at Houghton NY (5-22) and forward Kurt Keul (6-6, So) at Geneva PA (10-17).

Cabrini PA

Baro (6-5, Sr)

A district dynasty may have been established as Cabrini PA (24-7) is an obvious pick to earn a fourth consecutive trip to the national tournament. Cavalier coach John Dzik has done an outstanding job in developing a winning atmosphere with a program that was struggling in mediocrity when he took over six years ago. Eight lettermen and three starters return for the Cavs this season including honorable mention all-America guard Allen Jones (6-2, Sr) and forward Anthony Dade (8-4, Sr), a National Catholic Basketball Tournament all star.

If anybody can push Cabrini for the district title, look for either Philadelphia Pharmacy (24-7) or Alvernia PA (16-14) to challenge the issue. Pharmacy has nine lettermen returning for veteran coach Robert Morgan, the Blue Devils led by all-district forward Bryan Murray (6-3, Sr). All five starters are back at Alvernia including standout forward Tim Yankiewicz (6-6, Sr) and center Tom

Anthony Wilson
Misericordia PA

Elsewhere in the district, look for Allentown PA (8-18) to be much-improved, the Centaurs with 14 lettermen returning led by all-district forward John Ward (6-4, So). Marty Blazek
Rosary IL

Defending champion Quincy College has moved to NCAA Division II, opening the door for a number of the other contenders to vie for the district title and berth in the national tournament.

Rosary (22-11) is being tabbed as an early favorite, primarily because of the return of the Rebels' outstanding forward Marty Blazek (6-7, Sr), who scored 22-points a game last season. St. Xavier (25-11) returns nine lettermen, the Cougars led by forward John Dwyer (6-8, Sr). Last year's district runner-up St. Francis (23-10) lost a couple of key players, but the Saints still have a good nucleus led by center Dave Wilhelm (6-8, So).

Others who could cut into the playoff picture include Eureka (21-5), the Red Devils paced by all-district guard Greg Kunn (6-2, Sr), and Judson (13-17), the Eagles returning four double-figure scorers highlighted by all-district center Dwight Kirkland (6-8, So). McKendree (22-13) lost four starters to graduation.

but the Bearcats have some players ready to step in and support holdover guard John Batson (6-0, Sr).

Around the rest of the district, attention will be on Dennis Metcalf (6-0, Sr), the leading scorer for Olivet Nazarene (15-18), guard Walter Nowell (6-0, Sr) at Roosevelt (7-16) and backcourt ace Ryan Kirkland (6-0, So) at Illinois Tech (7-22).

Indiana

Ralph Gee
Taylor IN

Although defending champion Taylor (25-7) did not last long in the 1988 national tournament, the Trojans were one of the few teams that beat national champion David Lipscomb during the regular season. Coach Paul Patterson welcomes back five lettermen including all-district forward Ralph Gee (6-5, Sr) and the Trojans appear capable of defending their title.

Challengers include Purdue-Calamet (21-9), despite the loss of two all-district players, and St. Francis (18-8), where standout forward Matt Hicks (6-3, Sr) paces the returnees for the Cougars. Anderson (18-14), with 4 starters back for the Ravens including forward Scott Underwood (6-6, Sr) and Tri-State (18-15), behind leading scorer David Robinson (5-10, Sr), should also be prime competitors.

Other schools with bright outlooks and certain to be playoff prospects include Marian (16-12), led by guard Darren Fish (6-0, Jr), Grace (24-8) returning all-district forward Joe Graham (6-7, Sr) and Marlon, bolstered by forward Terry Gimore (6-5, Sr). Indiana-Southeast (18-14) has all five starters back and the Grenadiers may be the most-improved team. IUPUI-Indianapolis (31-19) will also be a much better team, the Metros paced by one of the district's top individuals in guard Aldray Gibson (6-1, Sr).

Some of the top players on other teams around the district include guard Jerome Caderone (6-0, Sr) at Bethel (18-14), 21-point scorer Tony Brown (5-10, Sr) at Earlham (5-21) and team captain Mike Hackett (6-3, Sr) at Franklin IN (8-20).

DISTRICT 22

Ohio

Randy Kortokraz
Findlay OH

The entire roster returns intact at Findlay (25-6), providing one of the brightest outlooks of any of the district championship teams from last season. Second year coach Ron Nekamp's biggest chore will be to guard against complacency. All-America forward Randy Kortokraz (6-5, Sr), who was fourth in the nation in scoring (28.4) and fifth in rebounding (13.9) last year, provides the Oilers with the dominant player which makes good teams great.

Standing in the contention line if Findlay should falter is Malone (22-9), led by guard Jim Widder (6-4, Sr), and Defiance, where center Dennis Bostelman (6-5, Jr) has developed into a quality pivot player. Cedarville (22-10), headlined by swingman Chris Reese (6-2, Jr) and Rlo Granda (22-10), bolstered by the return of all-district forward Joe Vernoff (6-4, Sr), are both solid playoff prospects.

Tom Clark
Mt. Vernon Nazarene OH

Incoming recruits must contribute immediately if Walsh (20-9) is to stay in the playoff chase. The Cavaliers will be led by forward Allen Walker (6-5, Sr). All-time scoring leader Pete DeMonte (6-5, Sr) returns at Bluffton where the Beavers will rely heavily on his 24-point offensive average. NAIA Emil Liston Scholar-Athlete Tom Clark (5-11, Sr) headlines eight returning lettermen at Mt. Vernon Nazarene (7-21), the Cougars appearing to be one of the district's most improved teams.

DISTRICT 23

Michigan

James Simmons
Northwood MI

Defending champion Saginaw Valley (20-11) welcomes back six lettermen in an effort to return to the national tournament. Head coach Bob Prati has all-district guard Devaroe Bridges (6-3, Sr) to anchor a solid backcourt for the Cardinals, but help must come from the recruiting ranks on the redbird frontline where forward Robert Goggins (6-4, Jr) is the lone holdover.

Hillsdale (16-15), last year's district runner-up, should keep pace with Saginaw. The Chargers return seven lettermen and four starters including standout guard Eric Allaire (6-5, So). Another Great Lakes intercollegiate Athletic Conference member, Northwood (11-16), should also join the playoff race with all five regulars back for the Northmen including all-district guard James Simmons (6-2, Jr) and forward Kevin Brown (6-5, Sr).

Among the top independents will be Siena Heights (20-11) led by all-district guard Larry Bryant (6-2, Jr), and Aquinas (20-11), where forward Cory Branch (6-7, Sr) will take up the scoring slack created by the graduation of district player of the year Larry Hardy.

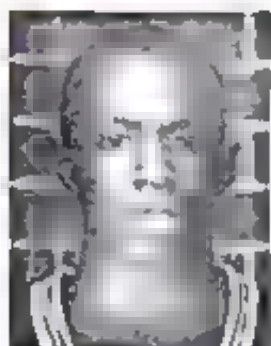

Other players to watch around the district include forward Theodis Pearson (6-5, So) at St. Mary's (17-22), all-district forward Rick Cleveland (6-3, Sr) at Spring Arbor and center Jim Eppink (6-7, Sr) at new member institution Grand Rapids Baptist (15-17).

Defending national champion David Lipscomb TN (35-4) will not have any added pressure according to coach Don Meyer. The Bison mentor intends to start with a clean slate and leave all accolades behind. Five lettermen return from a year ago including forward Chris Martello (6-6, Sr) and supersub Anthony Jones (6-2, Sr), but Meyer will direct his troops as if they were after their first district title.

Waiting in the wings for a chance to unseat the incumbent is a host of quality contenders. Lincoln Memorial (21-9) returns eight lettermen, the Railsplitters led by guard Tim Sullivan (6-0, Sr), but graduated all-district forward Keith Beck will be sorely missed. Standout guard Greg Belcher (5-11, Sr) and forward Stafford Daniels (6-3, Sr) pace the veterans at Carson-Newman (24-9). Other certain playoff prospects include Christian Brothers (20-14) where all-district forward Bill Clements (6-5, Sr) headlines nine returning lettermen for the Buccaneers. Union (17-13) will rely on strong point production from backcourt ace Willie Holland (6-2, Sr), while Tennessee Wesleyan (19-17) looks for point guard David Scott (6-2, Sr) to direct the Bulldog attack. Three double-figure scorers are back at Bethel (15-15), the Wildcats led by forward John Kemper (6-6, Jr), while Lee (19-20) welcomes back all five starters, the Flames highlighted by center Tommy Davis (6-6, Sr).

Other individuals to watch in the district include all-district center Michael Tigg (6-5, Sr) at King, guard Jeff Riey (6-0, Sr) at Tusculum (11-19) and center Ernesto Ramos (6-5, Jr) at Freed-Hardeman (10-17).

A new district championship is planned in this region after Winter FL (18-2) season... had a record 100% attendance in all districts of the school. The district also had a playoff championship game.

A tremendous recruiting year for Dees. Georgia Perimeter has made its Southern team GA 18-19 even though it was the 19th ranked team return six players including forward Eric Jones (18-3, Sr) and guard Anthony Carter (18-4, Sr) and hope to capture the district title which was last placed them the past two seasons. Other power contenders include Georgia Southern (18-8) the first round featuring a high-powered offense. LaGrange GA 18-11 with four transfers back after a year in college, and North Central (18-2, Sr) and Georgia College 18-14, paced by forward John White (18-8, Jr).

Others to watch include traditional pugilist North Georgia (18-11) featuring forward Kevin Harris (18-4, Sr) and Berry GA (18-12), where coach Peter Atlantic Christian (25-16) captured its first district championship with 30 wins... the district should have a chance for a very quick return. Highlighting the season are the 100% record and rebounder Ed Boone (18-1, Sr) and strong guard Gilbert Parker (18-5, Sr). Coach Gary Edwards' biggest task could be guarding against complacency.

Expected to challenge Atlantic Christian in the Carolinas Conference is Wingate (21-12), where last season's return included being second year forward (18-1) and (18-7, Sr) Pfeiffer (18-4) will miss district play of the year Greg Carter, but the Panthers should stay in the chase on the strength of players: forward Gary Davis (18-3, Sr), Pembroke State (18-14), with forward Steve Johnson (18-8, Sr), and Catawba 17-13, paced by a league leader Rich Thompson (18-4, Sr) who is hot press the state.

Others to watch in the Carolinas loop include forward Eric Hesse (18-7, Sr) at Elon (18-10), guard David Yancy (18-0, Sr) at Guilford (18-12) and forward Jeff Allen (18-5, Jr) for detached in dual High Point (18-17).

Among the independents, Gardner-Webb (18-17) looks particularly solid, the Puuming Bulldogs paced by center Ben Foster (18-1, Sr) and Belmont Abbey (18-7) is expected to have a punch loss to graduation in the first round. Coach Kevin Eggen's efforts are a good example. Wake-Forest (18-12) has a new player in David Rigg and a team short on offensive prowess, but Don Brown's defense (18-4) provides a good foundation.

DISTRICT 27

Alabama

Chris Dozier
Faulkner AL

Alabama is small by numbers but large on talent, and defending champion Birmingham-Southern (28-4) has established itself as one of the prime purveyors of quality players. Seven lettermen return for coach Joe Dean including frontline starters Allen Love (6-4, Sr) and Darrell Harris (6-6, Sr). The Panthers landed three outstanding junior college transfers and should remain the team to beat in the district race.

All-district forward Darren Golsen (6-4, Sr) and frontline mate Karl Cranshaw (6-3, Jr) headline a promising unit at Auburn-Montgomery (21-6). The primary chore for Senators' coach Larry Chapman is filling the scoring void created in the backcourt with the graduation of All-America guard Jesse Phillips. Athens State (21-7), last year's runner-up team, will be rebuilding following the loss of 10 lettermen. The Bears have added a bevy of junior college recruits to join lone holdover starter Greg Perkins (6-2, Sr).

Darren Golsen
Auburn-Montgomery AL

Elsewhere, look for Faulkner (17-11) to make a bonafide challenge for its first district title, the Eagles returning eight lettermen led by all-district standouts Chris Dozier (6-3, Sr) and Vernon Hollis (6-4, Sr). Guard Anthony Lawrence (6-2, Sr) leads the returnees at Montevallo where second year coach Ron Sprvery directs an improving Falcon program. Talladega (7-16), led by forward Ricky Youngblood (6-4, Sr), is also a team on the upswing.

West Virginia

Curtis Ray
Bluefield State WV

Todd Landrum takes over the coaching reins at Charleston (30-5) with the difficult task of directing an encore performance. The Golden Eagles were one of the nation's most exciting teams a year ago, ranking third in the nation with nearly 95 points a game and advancing to the quarterfinals of the national tournament. All-America guard Keith Tyler (6-1, Sr) returns to draw the spotlight, and will be joined by forwards Antonio Martin (6-3, Jr) and Jayson Gee (6-4, Jr) in defense of their West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference crown.

The top threat to dethrone Charleston in the WVIAC loop would appear to be West Virginia State (26-4) coming off NAIA suspension. The Yellow Jackets will feature an outstanding center in Ron Moore (7-0, Sr) and potent outside offense from guard Ronnie Legelle (6-0, Sr), making the Jackets an explosive squad. West Virginia Tech (23-10), last year's district runner-up, will miss WVIAC player of the year Sam Cooke, but the Golden Bears should remain in the chase.

Keith Tyler
Charleston WV

The other prime contenders for the league title include West Virginia Wesleyan (17-12), with four starters back led by all-district forward Lamont Ridley (6-4, Sr) and guard Terry Howard (5-10, Sr), and Glenville State (17-13) where standout forward Matt Bullitt (6-7, Sr) headlines the Pioneer attack. Shepherd (16-13) should be the most improved program, the Rams featuring nine returning lettermen including guard Bobby Chvey (6-4, So).

Three outstanding centers to watch around the rest of the league are Curtis Ray (6-5, Sr) at Bluefield State (12-15), Haywood Hightsmith (6-5, So) at Fairmont State (13-15) and Jay Hampton (6-4, Jr) at Alderson-Broaddus (11-17).

DISTRICT 29

Hawaii

Francis Fletcher
Chamaine HI

Defending champion Brigham Young-Hawaii (16-14) was an upset winner over the nation's number one ranked team Hawaii Pacific (25-7) in last year's title game, and the Seasideers will enter the 1986-87 campaign as a solid favorite to capture a return trip to Kansas City. Head coach Ted Chedester lost only one player from last year's squad and welcomes back all-district forward Rick Barker (6-4, Sr) and a sizeable frontline anchored by John White (6-10, Sr) and Rick Curtis (6-8, Sr).

Hawaii Pacific coach Paul Smith is optimistic about the Sea Warriors prospects despite losing his top 10 players to graduation including three all-district players. Smith has assembled an impressive group of transfers to step in immediately including junior college All-America guard Fred Jones (6-1, So) and center David Everett (6-11, Jr), a highly-recruited standout at Scottsdale (Ariz.) Junior College.

Rick Barker
BYU-Hawaii

Expected to make strong challenges for the district title are Hawaii-Hilo (12-16), with four starters back for the Vulcans, and Chamaine (13-14), where three regulars return for the Sherswords. Hilo coach Bob Wilson welcomes back leading scorer Mike Thrower (5-3, Sr) and forward Mario Long (6-6, Sr), hoping the team is back on the winning track. All-district forward Francis Fletcher (6-8, Sr) and guard Rod McCray (6-2, Jr) highlight the Chamaine roster for coach Merv Lopez, who hopes his program can regain some of the magic it enjoyed a couple of seasons ago.

Hawaii Loa (11-17) may still be a couple of players shy of seriously contending for a district championship, but the Mongoose will feature an outstanding center in Derrick Dell (6-10, Sr).

DISTRICT 30

Louisiana — Mississippi

Derrick Collins
Xavier LA

All five starters return for defending champion William Carey MS (20-15) as the Crusaders attempt to continue a mini-dynasty of sorts which has produced four consecutive district titles under coach Steve Knight. All-district performers Greg Hatten (6-3, Sr) and Clarence Gray (6-7, Sr) headline the veteran roster for the Crusaders who have been installed as a solid favorite to repeat.

A strong Xavier LA (16-5) team appears to be the primary obstacle in William Carey's path to the national tournament. The Gold Rush returns seven let-terms including two all-district guards in Derrick Collins (6-1, Sr) and Juan Mercer (6-2, Jr). Center Alex Williams (6-8, Sr) will hold things down in the middle for coach Denny Alexander, while new recruits are expected to bolster the forward position.

Other probable playoff contenders include Louisiana College (16-13) under

Greg Hatten
William Carey MS

first year coach Gene Rushing and led by standout forward Leslie Aaron (6-5, Sr). Spring Hill AL (15-23) paced by high-scoring guard Chris Williams (6-5, Jr), and Belhaven MS (16-14) led by guard Aaron Baker (6-5, Jr), should be competitive.

Although Tougaloo MS (11-15) may not be in position to contend for the district title, the Bulldogs will feature one of the best young players around as guard Marvin Fudge (6-3, So) returns.

DISTRICT 31

Eastern New York—New Jersey

Art Saab
Bloomfield NJ

In this region, there is St. Thomas Aquinas NY (37-6) and then there is everybody else.

Coming off its sixth consecutive district title and a fourth place finish in the national tournament, the Spartans have some patchwork to do but appear quite capable of continuing their success story. Coach Dave Possinger will miss the production of all-America guard James Carter, but Ken Robinson (5-11, Sr) is ready to take on added responsibility. Forward Charles Wynn (6-5, Jr) and center George Moody (6-7, Sr) provide stability on the frontline.

Waiting in the wings for a chance at the title if STAC should falter is Bloomfield NJ (17-8), led by all-district forward Art Saab (6-4, Sr) and Nyack NY (20-9), featuring standout forward Tony Bender (6-3, Sr) and versatile guard Tom Spaschak (6-1, Jr). Dominican NY (14-17) should be the most improved team, the Chargers returning four starters including all-district guard Tony Ben-

Tony Benbow
Dominican NY

bow (5-7, Jr), a good scorer and playmaker.

Other players to watch in the district include forward Todd Singerland (6-6, Sr) at St. Rose NY (16-15) and forward Andre Stephens (6-5, Jr) at Mount St. Mary NY.

DISTRICT 32

Kentucky

Keenan Bridgewater
Campbellsville KY

All-district forward Garrett Gregory (6-6, Sr) is the lone starter returning at Cumberland (32-3) where coach Randy Vernon must revamp his program quickly if the Indians hope for a return trip to the national tournament. Sixth man Art Hanson (6-7, Sr) is expected to move into the starting lineup, and several junior college recruits will have to make immediate contributions.

With the race considered wide open, several teams are lining up for the title chase. Union (18-15) is a strong candidate with eight lettermen back ~~by~~ by all-district forward Lenny Grace (6-3, Sr). Georgetown (25-7) is hungry for a championship after finishing runner-up last year, and the Tigers should be very good once again led by standout forward Keith Currens (6-5, Jr). Berea (19-9), with 25-point scorer Jay Stenzel (6-6, Sr) among four returning starters for the Mountaineers, and Transylvania (18-9), led by forward Todd Berger (6-4, Sr) and some impressive recruits, should also be in the playoff picture.

Lenny Grace

Although Pikeville (12-16) is not considered a prime contender for the district title, they will be the focus of much national attention as all-America forward Todd May (6-8, Sr) returns for the Bears. May led the nation in scoring last season with 35 points a contest and ranked second in rebounding with over 16 per game. A former major college recruit after being a consensus all-state selection in high school, he found an atmosphere at Pikeville which was more comfortable to him and Bear coach Greg White has reaped the benefits of that decision.

Other top players around the state include all-district guard Keenan Bridgewater (6-0, Sr) at Campbellsville (9-17), forward Frankie Page (6-3, Jr) at Berea (6-23) and all-league guard Hoby Stuart (6-0, Sr) at Clinch Valley (8-22).

MEN'S SCHEDULES

1986-87 NAIA MEN'S SCHEDULES

Listed alphabetically in this section are the 1986-87 schedules available at press time as reported by NAIA member institutions.

The first line of each listing contains the school's name, its nickname and 1985-86 won-lost record where available. The second line lists the school's location, name of its head basketball coach and his/her won-lost record for all seasons as a collegiate head coach at a four-year institution. The third line includes the name of the sports information director (if given) and his/her telephone number, followed by NAIA district and conference affiliation (if any). If a sports information director is not listed, the telephone number as noted may be that of the athletics department.

WOMEN'S OUTLOOK

DISTRICT 1

Washington—Northern Idaho—British Columbia—Alaska

Kristi Wilson
Central Washington

Full of optimism after advancing to the quarterfinals of the national tournament, Western Washington (25-8) should be the favorite for another District 1 title and make a strong bid to repeat as Bi-district 1 champions. Six lettermen led by all-district forward Kris Keltner (5-9, Sr) and guard Anya Aerdahl (5-7, Sr) highlight the personnel for veteran coach Linda Goodrich.

With the exit of last year's runner-up team Gonzaga WA for NCAA Division I status, primary challengers to Western Washington would appear to be Puget Sound WA (21-8) and Central Washington (16-10), both semifinalists in the district playoffs a year ago. Standout guard Wendi Tibbs (5-7, Jr) highlights the returnees for Puget Sound, but the Loggers will miss the offensive punch of district scoring leader Trish Armstrong. Forward Kristi Wilson (5-10, Sr) is the top returnee for Central Washington, but the Wildcats need to solidify their backcourt.

Linda Johnson
Seattle Pacific WA

Other possible contenders include Seattle Pacific WA (14-14), the Lady Falcons with four starters back including forward Linda Johnson (5-10, So). Simon Fraser BC (12-13) features a veteran squad, the Clan with nine returning lettermen led by center Nancy Innes (6-2, Jr). Pacific Lutheran WA (11-15) lost nobody from last year's team and the Lady Lutes should push for the playoffs behind players like guard Kelly Larson (5-10, So).

Others to watch in the district include forward Michelle Hackett (5-11 So) at Seattle WA (10-18), guard Laurie Green (5-5, Sr) at St. Martin's WA (2-26) and forward Debbie Thach (5-10, So) at Lewis Clark ID (7-22).

DISTRICT 2

Oregon—Southern Idaho

Casey Cosler
Western Oregon

With the University of Portland moving up to the NCAA Division I ranks after four straight district titles, Western Oregon (21-10) is poised to assume the frontrunner role in the playoff chase. The Wolves will feature a senior-dominated squad led by all-district selections Casey Cosler (6-0, Sr) and Allison Howard (6-1 Sr). Western coach Jon Carey needs just 13 wins for his 200th career victory, and has extended hopes for his eighth 20-win season.

Also prepared to battle for the district title is Northwest Nazarene ID (13-14) under first year coach Roger Schmidt. The Crusaders return five lettermen including standout forward Maake Thompson (5-10, Sr). Eastern Oregon should remain competitive despite a young squad. The Mounties' top returnee is guard Kathy McConnell (5-6, So) and they also get a new coach as Sharon Campbell assumes the helm.

Look for Linfield (10-21) to be the most improved team with nine lettermen back. The Wildcats will spotlight forward Tina Rappin (5-9, Sr), one of the nation's leading scorers last season and a consensus all-district pick.

Other top individuals in the district include guard Kendra Gardner (5-6, Jr) at Concordia OR (9-18), forward Susie Davis (5-9, Sr) at George Fox OR (14-13), forward Shelly Isaacs (5-9, Sr) at Oregon Tech (8-15) and guard Michelle Thomas (5-6, So) at Lewis and Clark OR (6-20).

Maake Thompson
Northwest Nazarene ID

DISTRICT 3

California

Lisa Oliver
Fresno Pacific CA

Defending champion Azusa Pacific (30-5) will have its work cut out in defense of its district title. Gone from a squad which advanced to the national tournament is the entire Lady Cougar frontline including the school's two all-time scoring leaders Cindy DeYoung and Denise Duncan. Holdover guard Duane Grove (5-6, Sr) will anchor the team while coach Sue Hebel adds new faces to the lineup.

Look for St. Mary's (19-9) behind guard Molly Robertson (5-10, Sr), and Fresno Pacific (22-8), led by all-district forward Lisa Oliver (5-8, Sr) to be the primary contenders to unseat Azusa. California Baptist (19-15) could also make its presence felt if the Lady Lancers can find some scoring punch to replace graduated forward Lorie Hallman.

Around the rest of the loop, Biola (11-16) would seem to be in for lean times following the graduation of district player of the year Becky Miller but Lady Eagle mentor Betty Norman puts much confidence in forward Lisa Jones (5-11, Sr). Southern California College (12-17) lost stand-out guard Kim Nidey to an injury, but the Vanguard's return six other returnmen including Lisa Terry (5-10, Sr).

Other individuals to watch include forward Gloria Phillips (5-10, Sr) at California Lutheran (14-12), guard Michelle Carter (5-8, Jr) at The Master's (6-17) and forward Shannon Anderson (5-9, So) at Point Loma Nazarene (4-24).

Lisa Jones
Biola CA

DISTRICT 4

Texas

Michelle VanDyke
East Texas Baptist

All of the district playoff teams from a year ago are loaded with returning players, creating a very talented and competitive field for the 1986-87 season. Defending champion Huston-Tillotson (18-12) returns 10 lettermen and four starters including all-district forward Darlene Watts (5-11, Sr). The Lady Rams were somewhat of a surprise winner last season but will be the team to beat this year.

All five starters are back at St. Mary's (20-8), the runner-up last season. The Rattlers are highlighted by all-district center Susan Carter (6-0, Sr) and standout guard Kim Watson (5-7, Sr). All twelve squad members return at Schreiner (16-12), where the Mountaineers have aspirations of a district championship behind all-district forward Suzanne O'Neill (5-8, Sr). The other playoff team from last season, Southwestern (9-17) lost more starting talent than anybody, but the Pirates could come around if new recruits contribute significantly.

Other teams to consider in the district include St. Edward's (15-13) with super second year guard Jenni Batchelor (5-8, So), Mary Hardin-Baylor (13-13) led by all-district center Nancy Hoelscher (8-1, Sr) and much improved East Texas Baptist (10-17) paced by all-district forward Michelle Van Dyke (5-8, Sr). Texas Lutheran (10-14) lost leading scorer Sarah Busboom to graduation, but the Lady Bulldogs should remain a solid playoff prospect.

Over at Concordia Lutheran (3-20) the Stags may not be district title material but they will feature one of the nation's top players in guard Lisa Hintz (5-7, Jr). Hintz led the nation in scoring last season with nearly 27 points a game.

Lisa Hintz
Concordia TX

DISTRICT 5

New England

Carolyn Brooks
St. Joseph's ME

Optimism is high at St. Joseph's ME (23-5) where all five starters return. Bob Stead takes over the coaching duties after a highly-successful high school career including an 80-8 record over the last four seasons. The Lady Monks top returnee is district player of the year Carolyn Brooks (5-8, Jr). Add an impressive recruit list which includes an all-state center and it becomes quite apparent that St. Joseph's has a great opportunity to repeat.

Expected to chase St. Joe's in the Western Maine Athletic Conference race is Maine-Farmington (14-9), the Beavers also with their entire starting lineup back including all-district guard Carol Bubar. Thomas ME (9-10) led by center Pauline Thernault (5-10, So) and New England ME (2-20) headlined by all-district forward Debbie Main (6-1, Jr) should both be improved but are not in the class of the defending champs.

Yovanna Brown
Western New England MA

Over in the Mayflower Conference, defending champion and district runner-up Franklin Pierce NH (21-10) looks very solid with all its regulars returning. The Ravens top player is all-league center Sheila Lindsey (6-1, Jr), a 22-point, 14-rebound performer last season. Hawthorne NH (17-11) should be the prime league challenger with a veteran unit led by all-district forward Pamela Chasse (5-10, Jr). Castleton State VT (18-9) will be in the race on the strength of all-league forward Brenda Keenan (5-10, Sr). The most improved squad should be Green Mountain VT (10-16) with 12 lettermen back.

Elsewhere in the district, top independent Maine-Presque Isle (24-7) lost four starters, but the lone holdover is all-district guard Claudia LaBrie (5-7, Sr) who should provide a solid foundation for the Lady Owl newcomers. Western New England MA (14-11) has an excellent outlook, the Golden Bears highlighted by the return of 22-point scorer Yovanna Brown (5-8, Jr).

DISTRICT 6

South Carolina

Sherry Douse
Claflin SC

The upcoming season will be a year of transition for defending national champion Francis Marion (36-2) as Trudi Lacey takes over the Lady Patriot helm from national coach of the year Sylvia Rhyne Hatchell who moved on to the University of North Carolina after 11 seasons. Lacey inherits a team that remains very talented, which has never had a losing season and working on a 24-game winning streak. Tops among nine returning lettermen is All-America and national tournament most valuable player Tracey Tillman (6-2, Jr) and forward Lisa Waldrop (5-11, Sr). The Lady Pats led the nation in scoring a year ago with nearly 94 points a contest and should continue to be a potent offensive team.

Francis Marion is not a shoe-in to repeat in this very competitive district. 1986-87 runner-up Claflin (27-4) averaged 84 points a game last year and return three starters including standout forward Sherry Douse (8-3, Sr).

Kim Harper
Lander SC

Limestone (20-9) behind forward Angela Winphrie (5-7, Sr), and Charleston (16-14) paced by all-district guard Audrey Watson (5-2, Sr) both reached the district semifinals last year but will be pressed by a host of improved teams.

Up and comers in the title chase include USC-Spartanburg (22-8) with its entire squad returning intact led by all-district center Gwen Proctor (5-11, Sr) and Lander (19-10) where point guard Kim Harper (5-7, Sr) directs a quality Lady Senator unit. Newberry (16-10) featuring forward Tammy Lathan (5-10, Sr) and Erskine (15-18) highlighted by center Cora Scheeringa (6-4, Sr) can't be counted out.

Other players to watch include all-district forward Patsy Johnson (5-11, Sr) at Central Wesleyan (11-13), forward Kim Barbory (5-10, Sr) at Columbia (13-15) and guard Angela Denton (5-4, So) at Converse.

DISTRICT 7

Colorado—Utah—Arizona—New Mexico

Paula Mahoney
Mesa CO

Unless new recruits make an immediate impact, defending champion Fort Lewis CO (20-8) will have a difficult time repeating. Point guard Denise Zacher (5-8, Jr) will anchor the Raider lineup, but it will be without the top three scorers from a year ago.

Look for district runner-up Western State CO (18-11) to carry the favorite's role into the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference race, the Mountaineers returning four starters led by all-district backcourter Laurie Nickolaus (5-6, Sr). Southern Utah (16-9) should be the other primary title candidate in the RMAC, the Thunderbirds with eight lettermen back paced by a pair of all-league picks in forward Darla Hunt (5-8, Sr) and guard Denise Mur (5-8, Sr).

Other playoff possibilities include Mesa CO (10-14) where the Mavericks will miss player of the year Pam DeCosta, but should stay strong with good young talent like Paula Mahoney (5-10, So). Adams State CO (10-16) gets the most improved tag, the Lady Indians highlighted by all-district players Stephanie Mondragon (5-7, Sr) and DeeDee Shiplet (5-10, Sr). Individuals of note throughout the rest of the district include center Shelly Waits (6-0, Jr) at Southern Colorado (11-16), all-district forward Kelly Hadley (5-10, Sr) at Colorado Mines (3-22) and guard Tara Harris (5-8, Sr) at Western New Mexico (10-13).

DISTRICT 8

Texas

Kathy Buckler
Tarleton State TX

Traditional national powerhouse Wayland Baptist (31-5) adds strong incentive to a long list of positive attributes as the Flying Queens prepare for the upcoming season. After reaching the NAIA title game before losing to Francis Marion a year ago, Floyd Evans' squad has set the national championship as its goal in 1987. Two-time all-America center Carmen Wynn (6-0, Sr) headlines eight returning lettermen for Wayland. Starting forward Sharla Harrison (6-1, So) and playmaking guard Shelly Kay (5-4, Sr) should also be key individuals. As usual, the Flying Queen recruiting harvest resulted in another bumper crop.

Top district teams among other independents include '85-86 runner-up Texas Wesleyan (23-8), where Beth Palmer takes over as coach and eight lettermen return including forward Joanna Hooker (5-10, Sr). All five starters are back at Midwestern State (15-14) including center Alice Taylor (6-1, Sr), giving the Lady Indians bright prospects of returning to the playoffs. Lubbock Christian (4-21) is not a title threat, but the Lady Chaps do have an outstanding forward in Nettie Gilbreath (5-8, Sr).

Over in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association, Tarleton State (14-15) defends its title with three starters back led by league most valuable player Kathy Buckler (5-11, Sr). All five regulars return for Sul Ross State (15-7), the Lady Lobos paced by all-district forward Vicky Vidana (5-9, Sr).

In the Interregional Athletic Conference, Wiley still looks quite strong despite the graduation of district scoring leader Paula Lawns. The Kittens will rely on guard Chandra Scott (5-6, Jr) to provide the leadership. Paul Quinn (20-14) will make a serious bid for the IAC title and district playoffs on the strength of four starters returning, the Lady Tigers spotlighting forward Sheryl Crowder (5-9, Jr).

DISTRICT 9

Oklahoma

Margaret Thompson
Northeastern Oklahoma

The balance of power shifted last season in this hotbed of women's basketball as Oklahoma Christian (27-8) ended a four-year dominance by Southwestern Oklahoma (20-9). The Lady Eagles return a good nucleus in an effort to defend their title, led by all-America forward Pam Kelly (5-10, Jr) and guard Shene Buben (5-5, Sr). Defense of the Sooner Athletic Conference crown will be the first priority.

Top contenders in the SAC race would appear to be Oklahoma Baptist (19-11), despite the loss of standout center Dayna Schultz, and Southern Nazarene (14-17), featuring guard Stephanie Shenk (5-8, Sr). Oklahoma City (13-12), led by forward Cassandra Daniels (5-9, So), and Phillips (11-17), with four starters back including Sandra Cermak (5-8, So), both should be improved.

Donna Douglas
Southwestern Oklahoma

The Oklahoma Intercollegiate Conference will begin sponsoring a league championship program for women this season and it would seem to be most fitting if Southwestern Oklahoma was the first basketball winner. The Lady Bulldogs have another bright outlooked by guard Donna Douglas (5-6, Sr) and outstanding recruits including national junior college player of the year Rhonda Smith (5-11, Sr). Other top teams in the OIC will include Northeastern Oklahoma (15-12), highlighted by district player of the year Margaret Thompson (5-10, Sr), Northwestern Oklahoma (18-12), led by guard Cindy Garrett (5-6, Jr) and Southeastern Oklahoma (13-12) paced by forward Lisa McMillin (5-10, Sr).

Cameron (28-5), last year's district runner-up, should again be the top independent with eight lettermen back including guard Cynthia Williamson (5-7, Jr). Panhandle State (20-10), led by all-district backcourter Georgia Walton (5-7, Sr), should also be in the playoff picture.

DISTRICT 10

Kansas

Carolyn Richard
Emporia State KS

Three starters return at St. Mary of the Plains (24-5), the Saints seeking their third consecutive district title. Standout forward Annette Smiley (5-11, Sr) and frontline mate Janelle Flax (6-0, Jr) highlight the veteran players. Second year coach Jim Coen expects the Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference race to be very competitive.

Friends (20-8), which shared the KCAC title with St. Mary a year ago, should be a strong contender again with an outstanding defensive team led by twins Shelly and Theresa Ballhazor (5-5, Sr). Elsewhere in the league, point guard Lorrie Self (5-6, Sr) directs a good team at Sterling (19-8). Despite the loss of four starters, Kansas Wesleyan (19-7) should remain one of the top programs, and Bethany (14-11) looks to be one of the more improved teams, the Swedes led by forward Lon Dunker (5-9, Sr) and center Jody Giggly (6-0, So). Other players to watch in the KCAC include conference scoring leader Bonnie Walby (5-9, So) at Bethel (8-16) and all-league guard Lisa Collins (5-6, Sr) at Southwestern (11-14).

Lorrie Self
Sterling KS

Foremost among Central States Intercollegiate Conference teams in Kansas should again be Fort Hays State (18-12) led by forward Staci Hadley (5-9, Sr). Pittsburg State (15-14) has eight lettermen coming back, forward Terry Barto (5-10, Sr) leading the the way for the Gonillas. All-district forward Carolyn Richard (5-9, Sr) headlines nine returning players at Emporia State (15-15) and standout guard Latisha Yarnell (5-8, Jr) leads four returning starters for Washburn (12-17).

Elsewhere around the district, independent Marymount (20-9) welcomes back 10 lettermen including all-district center Andre Schudt (5-11, Sr). Benedictine (11-12) is an improved team with quality returnees like forward Rosemary Mantas (5-10, Jr). Heart of America member Baker (9-20) looks to make progress behind center Marsha Hickman (8-3, Jr), the Wildcats leading scorer.

DISTRICT 11

Nebraska

Karen Moore
Midland Lutheran NE

Seeking its sixth straight district championship, Midland Lutheran (18-8) looks as strong as ever. Veteran Lady Warrior coach Joanne Bracker welcomes back all of her top players including all-district forwards Karen Moore (5-10, Sr) and Lori Briscoe (5-11, Jr). Midland looks like a shoe-in for another title.

If anybody has a shot at ending the Midland dominance, it appears St. Mary's (20-5) or Hastings (13-12) would be the top threats. All-district guard Diane Foli (5-4, Sr) will lead the effort for St. Mary's. Ten lettermen and four starters are back at Hastings paced by guard Kim Cook (5-7, Jr) and forward Cheryl Hughes (5-11, Sr).

Other playoff hopefuls include Kearney State (21-7), the Antelopes led by all-district guard LaNell Cox (5-7, Sr), and Concordia (15-13), the Lady Bulldogs highlighted by standout center Shelly Poppe (6-0, Jr). Doane (11-15) could slice into the postseason chase if the Tigers can find some support for backcourter Dena Gosch (5-7, Jr).

Other individuals to keep an eye on around the rest of the district include guard Joyce Brockmeier (5-4, Sr) at Dana (10-13), forward Tammy Freeburg (5-9, So) at Peru State (7-20), guard Mary Perrien (5-7, So) at Chadron State (8-14) and all-district guard Linda Schnitzler (5-6, So) at Wayne State (3-24).

Montana—North Dakota—South Dakota

Michelle Cox
Northern State SD

Three starters return for defending champion Mt. Marty SD (24-8) which peaked at the end of last season and advanced all the way to the national tournament. First year coach Kevin Lein inherits a Lady Lancer team highlighted by all-district guard Renate Sluys (5-7, Jr) and forward Diana Burkard (5-11, So).

Elsewhere in South Dakota, look for Northern Sun Conference member Northern State (20-8) to be a prime contender with seven lettermen returning, the Wolves led by center Michelle Cox (6-0, Jr). Defending South Dakota Intercollegiate Conference champion Sioux Falls (19-9) remains a top team as Dennis Voss takes over the Cougar coaching reins. Players to watch in the SDIC include center Susan Janovy (6-0, Sr) at South Dakota Tech (5-16) and guard Lolley Steele (5-6, Jr) at Huron (6-17).

Up in the Women's Athletic Conference of North Dakota, defending champ Mary (20-8) is being picked by many observers as the district favorite this season. The Marauders herald the return of district player of the year Patti Mercer (6-2, Sr). Minot State (14-12) led by center Cindy Tutin (6-0, Sr) and Mayville State paced by guard Sue Olson (5-10, Sr) should also vie for the WACND title.

Over in the Frontier Conference, Northern Montana (19-9) has a good shot at repeating as champion on the strength of center Andrea Anderson (6-0, Sr) returning for the Skylights. Carroll MT (20-12) should give Northern a good race, the Lady Saints with 13 lettermen back including all-district forward Mary Burton (5-8, Sr). Other players to watch include guard Margaret Rose (5-10, Sr) at Western Montana (11-13) and forward Janine Gotschall (5-10, Sr) at Rocky Mountain MT (12-15).

Renate Sluys

DISTRICT 13

Minnesota

Robin Dorenkemper
Southwest State MN

Sherri Mattson takes over as coach at Bemidji State (25-6) with a squad featuring four returning starters. The Beavers are led by all-district guard Kim Babula (5-6, Sr) and forward Liz Mulvihill (5-11 Jr) and look like a solid choice to repeat as Northern Sun Conference champions.

Elsewhere in the NSC, Minnesota-Duluth (16-9) should join the playoff chase with 10 lettermen, the Bulldogs led by all-league center Carmen Kuntz (6-0, Sr). Moorhead State (10-14) looks like a much improved program, the Dragons featuring all-district guard Lisa Clark (5-7, Sr) and 1984-85 honorable mention all-American Karen Card (6-0, Sr).

Other outstanding players in the Northern Sun include all-district forward Lisa Lockwood (5-8, Sr) at Winona State (7-17) and standout center Robin Dorenkemper (6-2, Jr) at Southwest State (6-18).

Independent Concordia-St. Paul (20-10) will seek another fine season after a district runner-up finish a year ago. Coach Jack Surridge's Comets lost two all-district players to graduation, but eight lettermen return led by the solid backcourt duo of Tracy Andersen (5-9, Sr) and Sandi Hammers (5-7, Jr).

Winona State MN

DISTRICT 14

Wisconsin

Sue Saeger
Edgewood WI

Defending champion Wisconsin-Green Bay has moved up to NCAA Division I status, opening the door for 1985-86 runner-up Wisconsin-Milwaukee (16-12) to assume the driver's seat in the district race. The Panthers welcome back eight lettermen and four starters, all of who scored in double figures a year ago. Leading the balanced attack for veteran coach Mary Ann Kelling is all-district forwards Polly Hagg (5-10, Jr) and Jan Wickman (5-10, Sr).

Expected to give Milwaukee a strong challenge is Concordia (17-11) where three starters return from the Lady Falcons semifinalist team from a year ago including center Glenda Skaritsky Wisconsin-Superior (8-17), the other semifinalist last season, also looks like a contender again with all-district guard Sandy Emerson (5-8, Jr) leading the way for the Yellowjackets.

Around the rest of the district, forward Janel Kempen (5-9, So) returns at Wisconsin-Eau Claire (5-19) to join some promising recruits and a promising outlook for the Bluegolds. Wisconsin-Parkside (7-18) also appears to be improved, the Rangers with three starters back led by guard Susie Brugioni (5-8, So).

Other players to watch include all-district guard Stacy Urbas (5-8, So) at Lakeland (18-11) and standout guard Sue Saeger (5-7 So) at new member Edgewood (9-4).

DISTRICT 15

Iowa

Amy Wilhelm
Morningside IA

With aspirations of moving into national prominence, defending champion Morningside (20-11) returns its entire team intact after qualifying for the national tournament a year ago. Guard Amy Wilhelm (5-8, Sr), a consensus all-district pick last year after scoring 24 points a game, leads the returnees for coach John Arnold. The Lady Chiefs other top players are center Paula Hunter (6-2, So) and guard Janice Schmitz (5-9, Sr), both instrumental in the team's 62-point offensive average last year.

The road back to Kansas City will not be simple for Morningside considering the prospects of some of the other Iowa teams. The return of all-district center Patty Campbell (6-0, So) should keep runner-up St. Ambrose (20-12) in the title chase. Two-time all-America forward Cathy Steen (6-0, Sr) gives Grand View (18-8) the same type of lift, the Lady Vikings minus only one player from last year's squad. Marycrest is also a legitimate title threat, the Marauding Eagles with five starters back led by all-district guard Jennell Bergwall (5-7, So).

Others with playoff potential include Iowa Wesleyan (17-9), featuring all-district forward Jane Simonett (5-11, Sr) and Northwestern (14-12), led by forwards Meinda Meilema (5-11, So) and Karman Woelber (5-10, Jr).

Top individuals around the rest of the district include 23-point scorer Rhonda Kujawa (5-9, Sr) at Briar Cliff (13-13), forward Ann Lammers (5-10, Sr) at Mount Mercy (5-10, Sr) and standout center Jacque Van Leeuwen (6-2, Sr) at Dordt (6-18).

DISTRICT 16

Missouri

Anita Rank
Missouri Southern

While Missouri-Kansas City (26-6) hopes to end its NAIA affiliation with another national tournament appearance, the rest of district hopes they can catch the Lady Kangaroos in a year of transition to NCAA Division I status. Point guard Meredith Wilcox (5-8, Jr) leads the K-roo returnees, but team strength probably will come from the transfer ranks where an impressive list of recruits has been assembled.

Among the field of hopefuls looking for a chance to unseat UMKC is Missouri Southern, led by center Anita Rank (6-0, Sr) and Culver-Stockton (23-6), featuring Heart of America Conference most valuable player Kelly Winters (5-6, Sr) and six other lettermen. Martha Baker takes over as coach at Culver-Stockton.

Other top playoff contenders include School of the Ozarks (17-14), the Bobcats led by forward Susan Wedel (5-10, Jr). Evangel (16-13), featuring all-district center Teresa Marlowe (6-0, So), should return to postseason play. Three starters are back at Missouri Western (17-12) including frontliners Anne Holland (5-9, Sr) and Lon Fisherty (5-11, Sr). William Jewell returns nine lettermen and four starters, the Cardinal playoff prospects supported by the return of all-conference guard Susan Lymer (5-7, Sr).

Among others with a promising outlook are Rockhurst, led by center Kathy Anderson (6-0, So), Park (12-12), with three starters back including forward Karen Epps (5-10, Sr) and William Woods (8-18), paced by guard Susan Snipp (5-3, Sr).

DISTRICT 17

Arkansas

Gail Sanders
Southern Arkansas

Considered an upset winner in last year's championship, Ouachita Baptist (18-13) should be the odds-on favorite in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference race this season. Seven lettermen return for the Tigerettes including all-America center Kay McClellan (6-1, Sr) and standout forward Nancy Wood (5-9, Sr). Coach Virginia Ehorn has also harvested a good crop of freshman talent.

Traditional AIC powerhouse Central Arkansas (20-10) should continue its successful ways with nine lettermen expected back for the Sugar Bears. All-district forward Dale Dennis and frontline mate Ann Beck (6-0, Sr) lead the veteran cast for coach Ron Marvel.

Despite the loss of two-time all-America center Lisa McClure, Arkansas-Monticello (18-10) should remain in the title chase, the Cotton Blossoms highlighted by forwards Becky Jones (5-10, Jr) and Charlotte Smith (5-11, Jr).

Arkansas Tech (23-3) also lost some key personnel, but the Golden Suns should remain competitive behind forward Patty Hayes (5-8, Sr) and point guard Christy Dunlap (5-8, Sr).

Others not to be counted out of the playoff picture include Arkansas College (16-11), led by forward Tanya Britt (5-10, Sr) and Arkansas-Pine Bluff (13-15), where all-America guard Crystal Scott (5-9, Jr) powers the Lionette scoring attack.

Individuals of note around the rest of the district include all-district guard Gail Sanders (5-6, Jr) at Southern Arkansas (6-19), center Andrea Biedsoe (5-10, Sr) at Harding (2-22) and guard Gina Frencken (5-8, Sr) at John Brown (13-12).

Patty Hayes
Arkansas Tech

DISTRICT 18

Western Pennsylvania—Western New York

Nancy Paxton
Geneva PA

All of the playoff teams from a year ago return a bunch of lettermen, creating a very experienced field for this season's playoff race. Defending champion St. Vincent PA (18-10) welcomes back 13 lettermen and all five starters led by the outstanding backcourt of Mary LaLonde (5-8, Sr) and Beth Rosensteel (5-7, Sr). Coach Kristen Zawack's Bearcats have made the national tournament their goal.

At the head of the line of challengers is Keuka NY (16-5), last year's district runner-up team. The Warriors return their entire starting lineup intact including leading scorer Dee Johnson (5-7, So) and top rebounder Lisa Fuchs (5-9, Sr). Point Park PA (15-11) featuring all-district guard Joyce Phillips (5-5, Sr) and Carlisle PA (13-17) highlighted by all-district center Sondra Conway (6-1, Sr), should both be among the frontrunners for the title.

Other considerations include Geneva (15-9), where outstanding forward

Nancy Paxton (5-10, Jr) and center Daniel Dimperio (6-0, Jr) give the Golden Tornadoes an optimistic outlook. Westminster PA (11-11) fits the highly-improved category, the Titans with eight lettermen returning led by all-district forward Donna Dregan (5-9, Jr).

Players to watch around the rest of the region include all-district forward Kim McDowell (5-10, Jr) at Seton Hill (11-12) and center Cindy Steadman (5-10, Jr) at Pitt-Bradford PA (4-21).

Mary LaLonde
St. Vincent PA

DISTRICT 19

Eastern Pennsylvania—Delaware

Lynn Butler
Allentown PA

The Centaurs of Allentown PA (21-10) will be looking for their third consecutive district championship and fourth straight 20-win season. All-America forward Lynn Butler (5-10, Sr) will again be the mainstay for coach Tom Shirley's squad as she approaches 2,000 career points. Guard Tina Costello (5-10, Jr) will be another important asset as Allentown shoots for their first trip to the national tournament.

Expected to be the primary candidate to unseat Allentown is Cabrini PA (13-13), the Cavaliers featuring one of the nation's top players in forward Fredia Gibbs (5-8, Sr), who averaged 29 points and averaged 17 rebounds a game last year. She will be aided on the frontline by all-district forward Sue Evich (5-9, Jr) as the Cavs make a bid for the title.

Others who could make a bid for the championship include Misericordia PA (10-9), the Cougars led by all-district forward Sue Sharp (5-9, Jr) who averaged 17 points and 12 rebounds last season. Beaver (11-6) will miss the production of two-time all star Barbara Cooper, but the Knights hope to remain competitive with some promising recruits. Neumann PA (14-5) hopes to make the playoffs this year behind three returning starters including forward Colette Rogers (5-6, Jr)

DISTRICT 20

Illinois

Connie Smith
Judson IL

Both of last year's district finalists, defending champion Quincy and runner-up Chicago State, are no longer in membership, opening the door for a number of teams to make a run at the championship.

Eureka (17-9) lost two all-district players to graduation, but the Red Devils should remain one of the top programs on the strength of their team defense which ranked tenth in the nation last year. Forward Danette Gilmore (5-7, Jr) is the top returnee. National (17-12) boasts 10 returning lettermen, the Lakers hoping to return to the playoffs behind veteran players like center Holly Zielke (6-0, Sr).

Others title candidates include Rosary (15-11) where all-district forward Charmaine Geduldig (5-10, Jr) highlights a veteran cast for the Lady Rebels. Center Connie Smith (5-11, Sr) headlines four returning starters at Judson (8-21), the Eagles capable of turning things completely around. McKendree

Holly Zielke
National IL

(10-15) is also much improved, the Bearcats with three starters back including forward Karyn Hunsinger (5-10, Sr).

Other individuals of note include all-district center Diane Comer (6-1, Sr) at St. Francis (6-25), forward Kathy D'Angelo (5-9, Jr) at Northeastern Illinois (1-23) and forward Yvonne Hendricks (5-8, Jr) at Olivet Nazarene (1-23).

DISTRICT 21

Indiana

Leila Crossley
Indiana Tech

In quest of a third straight district championship, the Lady Warriors of Indiana Tech (20-9) return seven lettermen and three key starters. All-district center Leila Crossley (6-0, Jr) and guard Tammie Logsdon (5-7, Jr) highlight the returnees. Tech was the nation's top rebounding team a year ago and that should remain a strong aspect for the Warriors.

Franklin (20-6), runner-up in last year's title game, should again be among the best with seven lettermen back for the Grizzlies led by two-time district all star Karen Potempa (5-10, Jr). IUPUI-Indianapolis (18-8) featuring stand-out forward Amy Strahmeyer (5-9, Sr) and all-district guard Kelly Fitzgerald (5-2, Sr), and Marion (20-7) should both return to the playoffs.

Other top programs include Purdue-Calumet (16-9), where district player of the year Lee Ann DeYoung (5-10, Jr) headlines the Lady Laker returnees. Huntington (15-16) should be a stronger club with nine lettermen and four starters back, as should Goshen (16-8) where center Dawn Gerber (6-1, Jr) leads the way.

Individuals of particular note on other teams include all-district guard Melissa Miller (5-6, Sr) at Manchester (11-12), center Alyse Fortune (5-10, So) at Tri-State (11-10) and guard Diane Cicora (5-10, Jr) at Marian (10-12).

DISTRICT 22

Ohio

Mia Dallas
Mt. Vernon Nazarene OH

The loss of all-America center Lon Harris creates a void at Defiance (25-2), but the Lady Jackets hope to defend their district title with seven other lettermen returning. Forward Pam Barton (5-9, Sr) is expected to take up most of the scoring slack and guard Tammy Parker (5-5, Sr) is an outstanding playmaker.

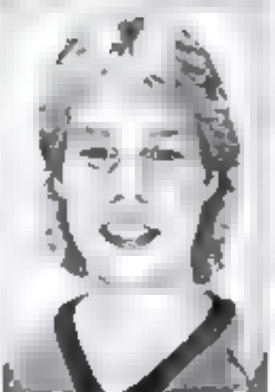

Primary threats to overthrow Defiance are Rio Grande (18-7), with eight lettermen returning, and Walsh (19-4), where four starters are back. Second year sensation LeeAnn Mullins (5-7, So) will spearhead the Redwomen attack at Rio Grande under new head coach Cheryl Fiektz. All-district center Nancy Beggums (5-10, Sr) highlights the veteran starting unit for the Walsh Cavaliers.

The rest of the top contenders for the playoff race include Mount Vernon Nazarene (15-9), where the Cougars are sparked by all-district guard Mia Dallas (5-8, Jr) and center Nicole Bosworth (6-1, So). Findlay (15-10) returns eight lettermen, the Oilers led by forward Monica Higgins (5-10, Sr) and guard Samantha Bradburn (5-8, So).

Elsewhere, all-district forward Lois Collins (5-7, So) returns at Tiffin (5-19) in an effort to help the Dragons progress. Other improved teams include Malone (16-12), the Lady Pioneers with 10 lettermen returning, and Mount St. Joseph (11-9), the Lions with four starters back including defensive ace Cathy Ellerbrock (5-8, Jr).

Players to watch on other teams include guard Tracey Galloway (5-2, Sr) at Ohio Dominican (12-10), forward Chris Friesen (5-7, So) at Cedarville (11-13) and center Cherie Rish (6-0, Jr) at Bluffton (9-15).

DISTRICT 23

Michigan

Roni Lloyd
Northwood MI

Nobody has dominated a region like Saginaw Valley (28-4), the Lady Cardinals in quest of their seventh consecutive district title. Saginaw is the only school which has appeared in all six previous NAIA national tournaments. Second year coach Claudette Charney welcomes back seven lettermen including center Lisa Masters (6-2, Sr) and standout forward Sandy Theriault (6-0, Sr).

If anybody can generate any confidence that they might finally dethrone Saginaw, it might be Aquinas (19-8), where the Saints return seven lettermen off last year's district runner-up team. All-district forward Cheryl Carpenter (5-10, Jr) leads the way. Spring Arbor (19-8), featuring all-district center Linda Crouch (6-1, Sr) and guard Evelyn Smith-Stokes (5-2, Sr), should be the other potential champion. The Cougars are co-coached by the husband and wife team of Darrell and Kay Dunkel.

Michele Lourim
Siena Heights MI

Scouting the rest of the pack, Northwood (13-13) fell off the pace a bit with the graduation of guard Paula Peterson, but Roni Lloyd (5-7, Sr) will attempt to pick up the slack for the Northwomen. New member Grand Rapids Baptist (13-11) hopes to make an immediate impact, the Comets led by center Penny Hough (6-2, Jr).

Other top players to watch include all-district center Caryn Lamb (6-0, Sr) at Hillsdale (6-19), all-district guard Michelle Lourim (5-5, Jr) at Siena Heights (8-21) and forward Diane Calliway (5-10, Sr) at Michigan-Dearborn (6-22).

DISTRICT 24

Tennessee

Karen Miracle
Carson-Newman TN

One of the best district races in the country is expected in Tennessee where parity has arrived. Defending champion Tennessee Wesleyan (25-7) is no lock despite 11 lettermen returning for the Lady Bulldogs. Standout guard Stacy Hutsell (5-9, Sr) and center Karen Saffles (6-0, Sr) will be key players for coach Stan Harrison.

The prime contenders include Carson-Newman (26-6), the Lady Eagles with four starters back including all-district center Karen Miracle (6-2, Sr), and Union (22-6), the Lady Bulldogs featuring one of the nation's top offensive machines fueled by all-America guard Charlotte Hart (5-8, Jr) and all-district center Jackie Graham (6-2, Sr). Last year's district runner-up Christian Brothers (16-14) can't be counted out, the Lady Bucs led by guard Adele Gipson (5-9, So) and nine other returning lettermen.

Adele Gipson
Christian Brothers TN

Others expected to be in the playoff picture include David Lipscomb (19-11), led by all-league guard Kim Satterfield (5-9, Sr), and Lincoln Memorial (20-8), the Railsplitters paced by guard Carrie Shoffner (5-7, So). The return of all-district forward Toy White (5-11, Sr) at Milligan (18-11) should help boost the Lady Buffaloes into contention.

Individuals to watch around the rest of the district include point guard Bridgett Park (5-6, Sr) at Lee (21-14), center Lesley Eakins (6-0, Sr) at Freed-Hardeman (13-14) and guard Angela Godwin (5-6, Jr) at Lambuth (9-16).

DISTRICT 25

Georgia—Florida

Bridgette Colson
Georgia Southwestern

The Lady Hurricanes of Georgia Southwestern (25-3) lost twice to national champion Francis Marion last year, once in the bi-district championship game and again in the semifinals of the national tournament after qualifying as the at-large entrant. They approach the 1986-87 season with increased confidence that they are one of the country's top teams. All-district performers Bridgette Colson (6-0, Sr) and forward Rose Wicher (5-11, Sr) highlight the returning players.

Berry GA (25-7) had its string of five consecutive district titles snapped last year and the Lady Vikings are eager to bounce back. Second year coach Drema Greer welcomes back seven lettermen including center Phyllis Thompson (5-9, Sr) and guard Deidra Adams (5-3, Sr) in an effort to overtake Georgia Southwestern.

Other championship contenders include a very strong Georgia College (14-10) team, the Lady Colonials returning their starting lineup intact led by center May Neloms (5-11, Jr), and North Georgia (13-11), the Lady Saints highlighted by the return of all-district forwards Gretchen Smith (6-0, So) and Annette Rogers (5-11, Jr).

Kennesaw GA (16-12), with freshman of the year Sharon Baldwin (5-8, So), and Shorter (16-13), paced by standout guard Tamre Weaver (5-8, Jr) both have the nucleus to make a strong bid for one of the postseason playoff berths.

Gretchen Smith
North Georgia

DISTRICT 26

North Carolina

Tracy Vann
Pembroke State NC

If the pre-season prognostication is accurate, there may not be much of a reason to have a playoff in North Carolina this year. Defending champion Wingate (26-6) looks to be one of the more solid teams in the country, the Lady Bulldogs returning 11 lettermen and all five starters from last year's national quarterfinal team. All-district forward Beverly Greenard (6-0, Sr) and the solid backcourt duo of Cheryl Barrineau (5-8, Jr) and Stark Welch (5-10, Jr) highlight the personnel.

Waiting in the wings is a talented Pembroke State (21-6) squad, the Lady Braves featuring the return of four double-figure scorers led by all-district forward Tracy Vann (5-10, Jr). Belmont Abbey (20-9), paced by all-district forward Audrey Murray (5-9, Sr), and Catawba (17-15), with a potent scoring attack featuring guard Lisa Kearns (5-7, Jr), should both be prime playoff contenders.

Other top programs include High Point (12-14), with nine lettermen returning for the Lady Panthers including standout forward Angie Green (5-9, Sr). Barber-Scotia (17-10) shoots for its first playoff appearance behind a multi-talented squad highlighted by center Unta Joshua (5-10, Sr) and forward Karla McCowan (5-8, Sr).

Individual talent to focus on around the rest of the district include forward Cheryl Sigmon (5-10, Jr) at Lenoir-Rhyne (13-13), center Amy Keirseay (5-11, So) at Mars Hill and forward Donna Wolf (5-9, Jr) at Pfeiffer (10-13).

Unta Joshua

DISTRICT 27

Alabama

Denise McDonald
West Florida

Three starters and some experienced bench help return from last season's championship club at Montevallo (17-12), giving the Lady Falcons a promising outlook. Honorable mention all-America guard Karen Scott (5-9, Sr), backcourt mate Diane Collins (5-9, So) and all-district center Sharon Douglas (5-11, Sr) highlight the returnees as Joe Hagen takes over as the new head coach. Throw in a couple of impressive junior college transfers and its easy to see why the Falcons are shooting for the national tournament.

Expected to offer the primary obstacle to Montevallo's path toward another title is West Florida (16-9), where five lettermen return. The Lady Argonauts are led by standout forward Denise McDonald (5-9, Sr), one of the nation's top rebounders last season. All-district guard Becky Sassen (5-8, Sr) also returns to increase the Argos' playoff potential.

Karen Scott
Montevallo AL

Others to consider around the rest of the district include a much improved

Talladega (2-17), where four starters return for the Lady Tornadoes. Top individuals for second year coach William Morgan are forward Priscilla Hosley (5-11, So) and playmaking guard Lisa Roland (5-5, Jr).

The new program at Auburn-Montgomery AL is not expected to be your typical first-year loser. The school has hired successful junior college coach Colby Tilley to direct the Lady Senator program and he has assembled an impressive group of transfers who could produce a winning season immediately. Tilley boasts a 234-46 career record in the juco ranks including a NJCAA national championship.

DISTRICT 28

West Virginia

Wendy Ramsey
Shepherd WV

Linda Bennett Travinski takes over the helm of a highly-successful program at Charleston (19-12), the Golden Eagles looking to repeat as West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference champions. Despite the loss of conference player of the year Sherry Winn, the Eagles have high hopes that their other veteran players will produce. Guard Shelley Ritchie (5-7, Sr) highlights the Look for Bluefield State (20-6), with seven returning lettermen, and West Virginia Wesleyan (18-7), highlighted by three starters back, to be the primary challengers in the WVIAC race. Standout guard Dendra Hill (5-7, Sr) and forward Sabrina Edalen (5-7, Sr) pace the veteran attack at Bluefield. Guard Becky Lazzan (5-4, So) and forward Beth Dorsey (5-7, So) headline the Lady Bobcat lineup at Wesleyan.

Vonda Shaw
Fairmont State WV

Elsewhere, Fairmont State (18-13) returns four starters including all-district guard Vonda Shaw (5-6, Jr), and the Falcons are capable of contending for the league title. Glenville State (15-11) has a promising outlook, the Pioneers led by center Kim Cree (6-0, So), while Shepherd (16-12) should be improved with four starters back including standout forward Wendy Ramsey (5-7, Sr).

Individuals to watch around the rest of the league include forward Mary Kohler (5-7, Sr) at West Liberty (10-17), all-district center Donna Gordon (6-1, So) at West Virginia State and all-district center Tracy Fletcher (6-1, Sr) at Concord.

DISTRICT 30

Louisiana—Mississippi

Demetria Lang
Xavier LA

A major rebuilding effort is in store for Louisiana College (31-3) where the Lady Wildcats lost all five starters to graduation following their third place national tournament finish. Second year coach Sheila Thompson Johnson will count on holdover squad member Debbie Watts (5-9, So) to provide the foundation for several promising recruits.

Hoping to pursue the championship while the Wildcats restructure is a solid Xavier LA team, the Gold Nuggets featuring seven returning lettermen including all-district center Demetria Lang (6-2, Sr) and forward Dorcas Harvey (5-7, Sr). Xavier has a very capable offensive attack, but defense will be the key to the Nuggets' title chances.

The other prime championship contenders should be William Carey MS (14-12), led by nine returning lettermen including all-district center Angela Fenton (6-3, Jr) and Dillard LA (13-17), spotlighting its all-district backcourt of Shen

Lyons (5-4, Sr) and Vanessa Sneed (5-11, Sr).

Individuals to watch around the rest of the loop include all-district guard JoAnn Knox (5-7, Sr) at Tougaloo MS (10-18), high-scoring forward Monica Maddox (5-9, Sr) at Belhaven MS (14-17) and center Ashley Gomillion (6-0, So) at Spring Hill AL (13-15).

DISTRICT 31

Eastern New York—New Jersey

Kathy Lynch
Georgian Court NJ

There may not be much of a race in this region unless somebody can derail Dominican NY (20-15) from its charge back to the national tournament. The Chargers return their entire starting lineup intact and coach Steve Baxter has added some recruits who could challenge for a regular position. District player of the year Maryellen Massey (5-8, Jr) highlights the returning players which also include center Lisa McKenna (6-1, Jr) and point guard Maura Hill (5-2, So).

Look for St. Thomas Aquinas NY (18-12) to be strong again this year, the Lady Spartans with 11 lettermen returning led by forward Margaret Rosi (5-11, Jr). Georgian Court NJ (11-14) came on strong at the end of last season, providing tremendous optimism for the upcoming campaign. The Lions return four starters including standout forward Kathy Lynch (5-9, Sr) and guard Eileen Baynes (5-5, Jr).

Others to watch include Nyack NY (15-10), the Lady Parsons shooting for the playoffs behind players like forward Debbie Ireland (6-0, Jr). St. Rose NY (10-14), led by standout forward Donna Fields (5-6, So) and Bloomfield NJ (6-17), paced by all-district center Cindy Johnson (5-11, Sr), should both be improved programs.

DISTRICT 32

Kentucky

Gays Locke
Cumberland KY

A tight race is anticipated as a number of strong contenders prepare to dethrone Cumberland (24-6) as defending district champions. The Lady Indians were somewhat of a surprise winner a year ago in advancing all the way to the national tournament. All-district forward Gays Locke (5-10, Sr) leads nine returning lettermen for coach Henry Morgan.

Campbellsville (23-8) returns only one starter from the Lady Tigers' district runner-up team of last season, but the lone holdover is all-district center Franseda Gunn (5-11, Sr) who should provide an excellent base to build around. Look for Transylvania (16-8) to be in the thick of the title chase, the Lady Pioneers with seven lettermen back led by sensational second year forward Audrey Arthur (5-9, So). Pikeville (11-11) lost district player of the year Colette Jarrell to graduation, but the Lady Bears should remain competitive.

Elsewhere, look for Alice Lloyd (16-15) to contend for the playoffs with eight lettermen back, the Lady Eagles paced by all-district center Anita Wells (5-11, So). Union (10-12) should be the most improved club, the Lady Bulldogs with all five starters returning.

Other players to keep an eye on around the state include all-district center Shannon Thompson (5-10, So) at Brescia (8-14), guard Lisa Arnold (5-8, Jr) at Georgetown (12-13) and center Brenda Simon (6-0, Sr) at Thomas More (3-18).

1986-87 NAIA WOMEN'S SCHEDULES

Listed alphabetically in this section are the 1986-87 schedules available at press time as reported by NAIA member institutions.

The first line of each listing contains the school's name, its nickname and 1985-86 won-lost record where available. The second line lists the school's location, name of its head basketball coach and his/her won-lost record for all seasons as a collegiate head coach at a four-year institution. The third line includes the name of the sports information director (if given) and his/her telephone number, followed by NAIA district and conference affiliation (if any). If a sports information director is not listed, the telephone number as noted may be that of the athletics department.

NAIA ALL-TIME MEN'S ALL-AMERICA LISTING

The following is a list of players (alphabetically by schools) selected to NAIA men's all-America basketball teams since All-America teams were first selected in the 1950-51 season. The numbers following each institution first indicate the number of All-Americans followed by the number of different individuals selected to teams. The numbers following each individual indicate first, second or third team selection.
